HEAVY LOAD?

On his strong, sturdy shoulder,
A school bag heavy as a boulder.
All the way from the car,
To his desk, it's way too far.

Carrying a jar filled to the top,
Filled with water, she cannot stop.
For miles and miles she walks alone,
For she must take this water home.

Complaining and weary, he reaches his desk.
He puffs and pants, he needs a rest,
He has to carry all these books,
It is such a chore, it really sucks.

Just another mile to go,
In this heat she's sweating so,
But she must carry on, be brave,
Her baby sister she must save.

On the Trócaire box he sees the girl,
Carrying water from the well.
She is about his age, about his height –
Suddenly his bag seems light.

Pádraig Power (9 years old)

He has risen, have faith in Him and
He will always be there for you!
Have a blessed and happy Easter.
