EARTH WEEK 4th – 13th OCTOBER In celebrating Earth Week 2013 we invite you to reflect on the importance of Water. Access to water for life is a basic human need and a fundamental human right. Yet in our increasingly prosperous world, nearly a billion people are denied the right to clean water. "It is therefore necessary to cultivate a public conscience that considers food and access to water as universal rights of human beings, without distinction or discrimination". (Caritas in Veritate. Benedict XVI.) We invite you as a parish, school, or family to see how you use this precious gift. Let Earth Week 2013 remind us that every drop counts! Justice, Peace and the Integrity of Creation Group.
