A copy of the recent Financial Statement is still available at the back of the Church for your information. A most sincere thank you to all who faithfully support the parish collection on a regular basis – the parish envelope collection, the offertory and the parish priests envelope collections. Some remain not as loyal in their support and we encourage you to renew your commitment to the parish collections, so as to enable the parish to function efficiently and without having to incur debt or cut-back on necessary expenses. May God continue to bless you all for your kindness.
