CHURCH NOTICES

Dear Parishioners,

As I leave for my new appointment as chaplain to almost 4,000 young people at the I.T.T. in Tralee, I would like to sincerely say thank you to so many for your kindness, support and generosity, prayers and good humour! Parishes don't just happen, and so many people work away quietly and faithfully – and I pray the good Lord will always reward you. Naming groups or individual people always runs the risk of leaving out someone! – But to all of you who supported the Parish, and myself, in anyway – míle, míle buíochas, and keep up the good work – because it is good work. I am sure you will welcome Fr Fergal Ryan - as you did me and let us all – each in our own way, strive to “act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with our God.” As the prophet Micah put it all those years ago, God bless you and yours always and may the good Lord be with us all in our comings and our goings.

Fr Donal
