IRISH HEART FOUNDATION annual Church Gate Collection in Beaufort this weekend.

BEAUFORT TIDY TOWNS have had another very successful adjudication in The National Tidy Towns Competition announced last Monday. Beaufort increased its overall score by 6 points this year to a total of 297 points. This has been our 6th year in the competition and considering that our first mark awarded was 260 points in 2011 it shows how Beaufort is winning admiration from our adjudicators each year. This also proves the amount of great work being done by people in Beaufort and our sincere thanks to all who have helped us during the past year in every way. We are very proud of our parish and we hope for continued admiration for Beaufort in the years that come.
